

Confined Water Teaching Presentation Criteria

- Skill Introduction
 - [3] Was the importance or value established?
 - [3] Was a statement of student performance objectives made?
 - [3] Was the general sequence of the activity provided?
- Skill Practice and Evaluation
 - [3] Was the exercise organized, safe, and controlled?
 - [3] Was there a clear and accurate demonstration?
 - [3] Was the practice time efficient and observed?
 - [3] Were skill deficiencies and errors identified and prescriptive coaching and remedial practice provided for?
 - [3] Was there adequate student participation vs. passive listening or watching?
 - [4] Was good use made of assistant(s)?
 - [4] Was the exercise conducted enthusiastically?
 - [4] Were appropriate games used effectively?
 - [5] Was the presentation imaginative and innovative?
 - [5] Was the exercise polished, smooth, and professional?
- Skill Transition
 - [3] Were evaluations of student performance communicated to students?
 - [3] Were key points identified?
 - [4] Was good performance praised?
 - [5] Were suggestions for practice and improvement made?

Open Water Teaching Presentation Criteria

- Briefing
 - [3] Was a statement of training objectives provided?
 - [3] Were clear, concise instructions and a general sequence of activity provided?
 - [3] Were safety precautions and signals covered?
- Activity
 - [3] Was the activity organized, safe, and controlled?
 - [3] Were NAUI standards met?
 - [3] Was the activity time efficient and observed?
 - [3] Were skill deficiencies and errors identified and prescriptive coaching and remedial practice provided for?
 - [3] Were communications effective?
 - [4] Was good use made of assistant(s)?
 - [4] Was the dive enjoyable?
 - [5] Was the conduct of the activity smooth, and professional?
- Debriefing
 - [3] Was the debriefing organized and effective?
 - [3] Were evaluations of student performance communicated to students?
 - [3] Were key points identified?
 - [3] Was good performance praised?
 - [3] Were problems identified and suggestions for practice and improvement made?
 - [4] Was there enthusiasm throughout the presentation?